Verkostnotiz

JAMES SUCKLING: "Lavender, orange peel and redcurrants with some flowers. Medium body. Fine tannins and a tangy finish. Citrusy at the end. One that will be nice to drink young."

ROBERT PARKER - THE WINE ADVOCATE: "Now benefiting from its own dedicated winery, the 2021 Le Carillon d'Angélus is no longer a "second wine" per se, but rather draws on some 25 hectares of dedicated vineyards, emphasizing Merlot from the cool terroirs of Saint-Christophe-des-Bardes, complemented by holdings in the gravelly Figeac sector and on clay soils near Angélus itself - with anything that doesn't make the cut relegated to the No. 3 d'Angélus. Exhibiting aromas of raspberries, plums, warm spices and nicely integrated new oak, it's medium to full-bodied, supple and polished, with lively acids, refined tannins and a long, penetrating finish." - William Kelley

FALSTAFF: "Dunkles Rubingranat, violette Reflexe, zarte Randaufhellung. Floral unterlegte rote Herzkirschfrucht, ein Hauch von Preiselbeeren, tabakige Nuancen, zarte Orangenzesten. Elegant, frische Kirschen, feine, reife Tannine, mineralisch und frisch, delikater Speisenbegleiter, früh anzutrinken, zeigt Länge, animierender Stil." - Peter Moser
