Verkostnotiz

JAMES SUCKLING: "There's depth and beauty to this wine. It offers crunchy fruit, a chalky undertone and a hint of raw coffee bean. Medium body. Fine tannins. Bright and transparent. 90% merlot and 10% cabernet franc."

FALSTAFF: "Dunkles Rubingranat, opaler Kern, violette Reflexe, dezente Randaufhellung. Reife rote Herzkirchen, ein Hauch von Zwetschken, zarte Kräuterwürze, kandierte Orangenzesten. Saftig, elegant, dezente Extraktsüße, angenehmer Säurekern, komplex, mineralisch, gute Länge, ein stoffiger Speisenbegleiter."

THE WINE ADVOCATE: "The 2023 Le Carillon d'Angélus, as usual a blend of 90% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc, exhibits attractive aromas of cherries, raspberries and blackberries mingled with hints of exotic spices, vine smoke and violets. Medium to full-bodied, fleshy and polished, it's layered and enveloping, with a charming, seamless profile and a long, mouthwatering finish. As readers will by now remember, this bottling is no longer a "second wine" per se but rather draws on some 25 hectares of dedicated vineyards, emphasizing Merlot from the cool terroirs of Saint-Christophe-des-Bardes, complemented by holdings in the gravelly Figeac sector and on clay soils near Angélus itself-with anything that doesn't make the cut relegated to the No. 3 d'Angélus."
